The following are the strategies that are deployed by me for improving the pass percentage of slow learners in Mid-I examination and are as follows:

- By revising important topics through Offline & online (6:00 – 700pm) and planning for conducting one test on those topic for every week
- By conducting remedial classes with implementation of 14 Points formula(Preparing 14 Most important Questions referred from Previous Q.papers it contains a, b along with answers)
- Giving more number of assignments

The following are the strategies that are deployed by me for improving the pass percentage of slow learners in Mid-I examination and are as follows:

- By revising important topics through Offline & online (6:00 – 7:00pm) and planning for conducting one test on those topics mainly problematic on 21.3.23 & Practice sessions in every week
- By conducting remedial classes with implementation of 14 Points formula (Preparing 14 Most important Questions referred from Previous Q.papers it contains a, b along with answers)
- Giving more number of assignments & Revision Classes for those topics.
