NADIMPALLI SATYANARAYANA RAJU INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
(Approved by AICTE, New Delhi and Affiliated to JNTUK, Kakinada)

SERVICE RULES

WHEREAS it is necessary to define the terms and conditions of appointment and service of all the employees, i.e. Teaching and Non-Teaching persons employed in Nadimpalli Satyanarayana Raju Institute of Technology (NSRIT) and to provide for their duties, conduct and remuneration payable to them, the Management of NSRIT in exercise of the powers conferred by clause 10(i) of the Articles of the Society has made the following rules and regulations, for administration of the Institutions under their control.

CHAPTER – I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short Title: These regulations may be called the NSRIT Service Rules.
2. Application: They shall come into force with effect from 1st November, 2008 and shall apply to all regular employees i.e. teaching and non- teaching of the Institute, provided that nothing in these rules and regulations shall apply to persons employed temporarily or on daily wages.
3. Definitions: In these rules and regulations, unless and otherwise, there is anything contradictory in the subject or context:
 - a) Society: means Sree Veera Venkata Satyanarayana Educational Society (SVVSES) registered under A.P. Public Societies Registration Act, 35 of 2001 with Register No. 333 of 2007.
 - b) Management: means the Governing Body of the Society duly constituted subject, however, that the overall management and day to day administration of the Society and its affiliated Institutions shall vest with it and that their day to day administration shall vest with the Executive Committee.
 - c) Employee means a person employed by NSRIT to discharge the duties of the Society and its affiliated organizations for teaching and non-teaching purposes on remuneration basis.
 - d) Regular employee means a qualified person employed in a regular post and kept on probation for a period of one year or six months, as the case may be, in case of direct recruits and promotion respectively.
 - e) Probationer means an employee who is appointed against a regular post and kept on probation for a prescribed period of time pending confirmation in a regular post.
 - f) Salary means basic pay, dearness allowance and other allowances if any where applicable or consolidated pay without any allowances payable to an employee.

g) Service includes the period during which an employee on duty as well as on leave duly authorized by the Management but does not include any period during which an employee is absent from duty without pay and allowances.

h) Disciplinary authority: The General Secretary is the disciplinary authority for all the employees employed in the Institutions under the control of NSRIT. The General Secretary may nominate any other person/employee to be the disciplinary authority for a certain class/category of employees. The person so nominated shall exercise the powers of the disciplinary authority in discharge of the duties.

i) Appellant authority: Where the disciplinary authority is exercised by General Secretary, the Executive Committee of SVVSES is the appellant authority.

j) Enquiry Officer: Enquiry Officer is the person/committee appointed by disciplinary authority to enquire into the charges leveled against an employee of an institution.

4. Power to Interpret, Implement and to amend the Rules:

The power to interpret, implement and to amend the rules and regulations vests with the Management who is empowered to issue such administrative instructions or orders as may be necessary to give effect and to carry out the provisions of these rules and regulations. The Management shall have absolute right, liberty and powers to withdraw, modify, amend, alter, add to, repeal or to supersede at its sole discretion any or all the rules contained herein or any rules and regulations framed and enforced by it from time to time, provided that the new rules or regulations or alterations or amendments so made shall not be detrimental or adversely affect the interest of the existing employees who are in service on the day new rules or regulations or alterations come into force.

5. Management's Powers to Delegate:

The Management means the Executive Committee of SVVSES. It may delegate to the General Secretary of SVVSES or to any officer or officers of the Society or Institution under their control any or all the functions wholly or partly, permanently or temporarily and such officers or officer shall be the Management for the purpose of interpretation of these rules to the extent and for the duration of the period as may be authorized by the Management.

CHAPTER – II

APPOINTMENTS, PROBATION AND TERMINATION OF SERVICE

1. Classification of Employees:

a) The employees of NSRIT will be classified as follows:

- i. Teaching staff
- ii. Non-Teaching staff includes administrative, technical and non- technical employees.

b) The Management shall fix the number of posts in all categories from time to time and also prescribe qualifications, mode of recruitment and the scales of pay etc., to each category of posts of NSRIT which may be reviewed and revised by the Management from time to time depending upon the exigency. The pay scales of the Teaching Staff are covered under U.G.C/A.I.C.T.E. scales. Hence, their pay will be fixed in the appropriate grades and scales depending upon qualifications, experience, exposure and merit etc., as applicable and as amended from time to time except the staff recruited temporarily on a consolidated pay.

c) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules and regulations, the Management may employ persons on a temporary basis to different posts in the organization under their control on a consolidated pay or on daily wages or contract basis whenever and wherever the necessity and circumstances so warrant.

2. Certificate of Health and other Certificates:

Every employee shall be required to produce the following certificates on being appointed in the Society on regular basis:-

- a) Medical certificate of fitness issued by the Medical Officer
- b) Original Degree/Diploma certificates of the qualifications possessed by them along with attested Photostat copies of the same.
- c) Three copies of recently taken pass-port size photographs.
- d) Two certificates from educationalists or other responsible members of the society not related to the candidate certifying his/her character and conduct to the satisfaction of the society.

3. AGE: The age of a person at the time of his first appointment in the organizations under the control of Management shall be at the discretion of the Management.

a) In case of Teaching Staff other than the staff covered under U.G.C. scales of pay the Management may take a decision basing on the qualifications, experience etc., about the age of the person employed to the posts.

b) In other cases, 30 years; provided that the management in deviation of the above, may also employ persons who possess even more than the age of 30 years, depending upon the qualifications, experience etc., possessed by them in the exigencies of service.

4. Commencement of Service:

Except as otherwise provided by or under these regulations, service of an employee shall be deemed to commence from the working day on which an employee reports for duty in an appointment covered by these regulations at the place and time intimated to him by the Management provided that if he or she reports before forenoon, otherwise his/her service shall commence from the following day.

5. Probation:

a) Employees who are appointed to the posts in the organizations under the control of Management directly or on regular basis shall be required to be on probation for a period of not less than one year and in case of employees on promotion/transfer appointed to higher posts shall be for a period of not less than six months period on duty.

b)The probationary period can be extended by the Management if his service during the period prescribed in the appointment order is found to be not satisfactory.

c) If the probation is not declared within three months from the date of completion of the prescribed period, the probation is deemed to have been completed satisfactorily and he/or she becomes a regular employee.

d)The services of an employee on probation may be terminable by either party giving one month's notice to the other party.

6. Termination of Service:

a) If an employee at any time after completion of the probation intends to resign, he or she shall give three months' notice in writing or pay three months' salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, the management shall be competent at its discretion to terminate the service of any employee by giving three months' notice or by paying three months' salary in lieu thereof.

b) The Management shall also be competent to terminate the services of an employee in case of abolition of post or posts, due to closure of an Institution or reduction in the number of cadre strength, sections of a class or discontinuance of a teaching subject by giving three months' notice in writing or paying three months' salary in lieu thereof.

c) The Management shall also be competent to terminate the services of an employee who is incapacitated to discharge his official duties or for misconduct in discharging his/her official duties, by giving three months' notice or by paying three months' salary in lieu thereof.

7. Retirement:

Every employee shall retire from service on attaining the age of superannuation i.e. 60 years in case of teaching staff and 58 years of age in case of others.

Provided that the management in the interest of the organizations under their Management may extend the period of service of the employee concerned by such period as determined depending on the mental and physical condition of such an employee.

a) The employee in all categories of posts shall retire from service after attaining the age of superannuation with effect from the afternoon of the last day of the month in which their date of retirement falls under the operation of the existing rules.

b) However, the employees whose date of birth is first of a month shall retire on the last working day of previous month after attaining the age of superannuation i.e. 60 years in case of teaching staff and 58 years in case of others.

for employees seeking reemployment after attaining the age of superannuation

i. If an employee, after attaining the age of superannuation, desires to serve the Institute, he may apply, in writing, to the management to continue him in the service.

ii. After assessing the mental and physical condition of such an employee and the need to continue him in service and on receipt of the recommendation of the Head of the concerned Institution in which the employee is working, the Management can continue him in service on contract basis duly indicating the:

- (a) tenure of appointment;
- (b) consolidated salary to be paid per month;
- (c) annual increment payable in case the appointment is for more than a year; and
- (d) eligibility of the employee for benefits like leave other than casual leave.

iii. After the employee attains the age of 65 years, his case will be reviewed on year to year basis and he may be continued on year to year basis taking into consideration, specially his mental and physical condition, solely at the discretion of the Management.

CHAPTER – III

RECORD OF SERVICE, SENIORITY AND PROMOTION

1.Record of Service: A record of service shall be maintained in respect of each employee in such form as may be prescribed by the management from time to time.

2.Seniority: The seniority of the employee in the service shall be determined with reference to his/her date of regular appointment in the post held by his/her in the particular category.

3.Promotion: All appointments and promotions shall be made at the discretion of the Management and notwithstanding his seniority in a grade no employee shall have a right to be appointed or promoted to any particular post or grade.

4.Reversion: An employee transferred from one post to another or promoted from the lower post to the higher post shall be liable for reversion at any time without notice and without assigning any reason therefore by the Management.

CHAPTER – IV

CONDUCT, DISCIPLINE AND APPEAL RULES

1.Scope of an employee's service: Unless in any case if it is otherwise distinctly provided, the whole time of an employee shall be at the disposal of the Management and he or she shall serve in the organizations under its control in such capacity and at such place as may be directed from time to time.

2.Liability to abide by the rules and regulations: Every employee shall conform to and abide by such rules and shall observe, comply with and obey all orders and directions issued by the Management from time to time with utmost endeavour to promote the interests of the Organization whereat he/she is working by showing courtesy and attention in all transactions.

3.Application for other employment:

a) No employee shall apply for other employment or signify his willingness to accept such employment or office whether stipendiary or honorary or otherwise without the prior written permission of the Management. However, the Management may, at its discretion, permit an employee to apply for an outside post not more than once in a year.

b) No employee whether on leave or in active service of the Institution shall undertake part-time job which is likely to embarrass or influence him/her in the discharge of his/her official duties for any consideration whether cash or kind. However, an employee with the written permission of the Management may undertake honorary work of a social or charitable nature or occasional work of a literary, artistic or scientific character subject to the condition that such work does not interfere with his official duties.

4. Obligation to maintain secrecy: Every employee shall maintain secrecy in regard to the affairs of the institution and its constituents and shall not divulge directly or indirectly any information of confidential nature either to a member of the public or the Institution staff unless compelled to do so by judicial or other legal authority or unless instructed to do so by the Management

5. Absent from duty without permission: An employee shall not absent himself/herself from his or her duties without first obtaining the permission of the competent authority. In case of unavoidable circumstances, message or a letter should be sent on the next working day giving the reasons of his absence for the previous days. If the employee absents himself continuously for a period of 10 working days or more without any leave letter or communication, the employee shall be deemed to have been deserted the post held by him/her from the date on which he/she abstained from duty.

6. PENALTIES

a) Minor penalties:

- i. Censure
- ii. Fine (may be imposed on the employees who are below the cadre of Attenders)
